

VICTORIAN SCREEN INCENTIVE

VISUAL EFFECTS

Shang-Chi and the Legends of the Ten Rings, Marvel Studios

Experience the excitement of working with Victoria's world-renowned VFX studios who are lighting up the action in the world's biggest blockbusters.

Global companies Method Studios and Luma Pictures, who have created award-winning VFX on Spider-Man: No Way Home, Shang-Chi and the Legend of the Ten Rings, Hawkeye, King Richard, Loki, Game of Thrones and many more, both have major studios in Melbourne.

Our visual effects specialists undertake total VFX work or packages, and work as part of an integrated global team. Their highly skilled and experienced artists are dedicated to delivering the perfect shot every time so you can actualise the extraordinary.

It's time to make it in Melbourne, Victoria.

Method Studios won a VFX Emmy Award for their work on the 'Battle of the Bastards' scene in season six of Game of Thrones.

The Victorian Screen Incentive (VSI) is a competitive and simple grant to bring your VFX work to Victoria.

Is my project eligible?

To qualify, spend AU$1 million on VFX alone, or AU$500,000 when incorporated alongside other post-production services in Victoria.

Your project must be a film or series that is fully financed and has genuine marketplace interest for commercial release or distribution.

How much can I apply for?

Work with Victorian VFX studios, including powerhouses Method Studios and Luma Pictures, and you can apply for a grant of up to 10% on your project's Qualifying Victorian Expenditure (QVE) that is paid upon project completion.

VSI can be combined with the Australian Screen Production Incentive through the PDV Offset, Location Offset, Location Incentive, Official Co-production and Producer Offset.
