

VICTORIAN SCREEN REBATE

ANIMATION

Koala Man, Princess Bento Studio

Whether for the big screen, phone screen, TV or games, Victoria's multi award-winning animators and studios are breathing life into illustrated worlds.

The state of Victoria boasts a strong animation sector with the talent and capability to deliver world-class animation for film, series and digital games. Adam Elliot made his Academy Award®-winning claymation short film Harvie Krumpet in Melbourne.

Globally focused animation house Princess Bento Studio set up in Melbourne in 2021. Created through a partnership between Emmy Award-winning US animation studio Bento Box Entertainment and Victorian production powerhouse Princess Pictures, the studio is behind popular animation Koala Man, YOLO: Crystal Fantasy and Smiling Friends.

Join Nickelodeon, Cartoon Network, Disney, Amazon Prime and Warner Bros and experience the excitement of working with outstanding Victorian talent and businesses in one of the world's screen epicentres.

It's time to make it in Melbourne, Victoria.

The Victorian Screen Rebate (VSR) program is an economic development initiative that offers grants to support screen work on projects to be undertaken in Victoria.

Is my project eligible?

To qualify, spend a minimum of AU$500,000 on animation production for your project in Victoria.

Your project must be a film or series that is fully financed and has genuine marketplace interest for commercial release or distribution.

How much can I apply for?

Work with Victorian animation studios, and you can apply for a grant of up to 10% of your project's Qualifying Victorian Expenditure (QVE) that is paid upon project completion. Applicants that are majority Victorian-owned companies may be eligible for a grant up to 15% of the Qualifying Victorian Expenditure. VSR grants can only fund portions of the work not already funded by VPF.

VSR can be combined with any of the Federal Offsets.

To discuss your next project, contact your team in Victoria.
